SUBJECT : November as the National Reading Month

DATE : November 2, 2015

In celebration of the National Reading Month and in support of the "Every Child A Reader Program" (ECARP), the Department of Education- NCR enjoins the different schools division offices in observance of November as the National Reading Month with the theme "Nasa Pagbasa ang Pag-asa".

In line with this, the different learning centers, schools and learning institutions in every division are encouraged to conduct different reading activities for this month-long celebration.

Furthermore, the synchronized and simultaneous storybook reading, "Araw ng Pagbasa," and other related activities will be held on November 27, 2015.

The activities should aim to:

1. Promote reading and literacy among the pupils and the other members of the community,
2. Motivate the members of the community to be reading partners through shared reading experience, and
3. Advocate one's culture and values through literary appreciation.
